Operation: The user attempts to move a worker.
move(worker)

Pre-conditions: It is the user's turn to move. The game has started. The worker is able to move.

Post-conditions: Worker is moved to a valid position, and the old and new spaces are updated. The gameBoard state is updated. The worker object checks whether the Player has won or lost—if not, the turn switches to the other player.